OTHER RELEVANT INFORMATION

Soltec Power Holdings, through its subsidiary Powertis S.A.U. ("Powertis"), has signed with Aquila Capital ("Aquila") the transfer of 421 MW of projects under development in Italy, together with 90 MW for energy storage

Soltec Power Holdings, through its subsidiary Powertis S.A.U. ("Powertis"), has transferred 421 MW of photovoltaic solar projects under development in Italy to Aquila Capital ("Aquila"). The agreement also contemplates the co-development of an additional 90 MW for energy storage in that country.

Through the transfer executed, Aquila acquires 51% of the projects, and 49% remains in Powertis ownership.

Prior to this transaction, Powertis had already transferred 772 MW to Aquila Capital, bringing the total under co-development to 1,193 MW in Italy, plus 90 MW for energy storage.

Likewise, Aquila has signed a call option for the remaining 49% that can be exercised either at "Ready to Build" (RTB) stage or at "Commercial Operation Date" (COD).

The agreement guarantees Soltec Energías Renovables S.L.U. certain rights over the supply of the solar trackers used for the projects, as well as guarantees the contracting of the construction work of the projects (EPC).
